Mr. J. T. Campbell, Head
BBC Monitoring Service
Caversham Park
Reading, Berks., England

Dear Mr. Campbell:

[ ] has returned from his field trip and has told us of the splendid time he had in England and of the interesting conversations he had with you. STAT

Amongst other things, he has reported that you would prefer to pass our Radio Propaganda Reports to the [ ] rather than have them go through other channels. I heartily agree with this since I feel cross channels can become very complicated and confusing. I am, therefore, arranging to have three additional copies of our Radio Propaganda Reports sent to you; one for Mr. Clark, and two for the [ ] Most of these reports are classified 'Confidential' and, therefore, I am sending them to Roland Way through the diplomatic pouch for delivery to you. STAT

In the next few days I hope to get off a letter to you concerning the several subjects that I would like to discuss at the forthcoming Joint Coordinating Committee meeting.

Sincerely,

STAT
